Christmas festivities in Toulon

Publié le 20 November 2017

On the last Friday of November, the city put on its winter clothes. A magical moment which will repeat itself every evening, until early January. Toulon is adorned in light for Christmas. During this period, 15 km of illuminations turn the capital of the Var department into a real Christmas capital.

Like every year, 1,500 twinkling patterns and 54 "Welcome" signs enlighten the neighborhoods. This winter, besides traditional decorations, Santa Claus reserved some surprises to Toulon City's residents.

The inauguration of the Christmas Village

The Christmas Village on "la place de la Liberté" will open on November 22nd and be officially inaugurated on the 24th at 6 pm.

Between two parades, the wooden chalets will allow you to shop or enjoy a moment in family to taste mulled wine, pumpkin soup and crêpes. Gifts, local and craft-trade products should delight the curious and the gourmand.

Because Christmas is children's time first, the market is built around the theme of toys.

As for the ice rink traditionally set-up on place d'Armes, it will be necessary to wait until December 11th so that children and adults can put on their ice skates.
