

STUDENT Education

The choice of "post-high school diploma" orientation is decisive for every future holder of a high school diploma.

University, technological training, preparation for joining a "Grande École" ("Great School"), the choice of "post-high school diploma" orientation is decisive for every future holder of a high school diploma. To resume school after the summer holiday successfully, and prepare the following school year, here is a view of the offer of basic trainings on the territory of the urban area. Ranging from sea-related jobs to international trade, including two-year technical degrees (B.T.S.) in the hotel business, visual communication or engineering degrees, the municipalities of the urban area offer a wide quality choice in highly varied fields to students holding a high school diploma.

Look for trainings in the urban area.
