Facilitating the procedures

If it is your first registration in the higher education, do not forget any "key documents":

- Your high school student registration card which features your Student Social Security number or a birth certificate
- A photocopy of your parents' Vital certificate on which you are mentioned (if you are under 20 years old) a birth certificate if you were born abroad a RIB (bank details) in your name for your refunds
- If you are already affiliated to a centre of student Social Security, it will be necessary to supply:
- Your personal Vital certificate or a photocopy of your national insurance card
